- When watching a YouTube video, stop regularly to chat about what is happening in the book and what you are thinking is on it.
- Watching a TV or streaming show with your child can be an opportunity to connect and enjoy each other's company.

Conversations about Racism

Here is a list of books compiled by Parent's Magazine that might help in any conversations you are having with your children on the topic of racism. The appropriate age range for each book is included with the title.
