No Left Turn in Education

WE HAVE NOT YET BEGUN TO FIGHT

On October 15, 2021, Beth Barts, School Board Member for Leesburg District, Loudoun County Public Schools, Virginia resigned amid the controversy over allegations of multiple sexual assaults in Loudoun County and her alleged involvement in the doxing and threatening of parents as part of the Chardonnay Antifa Group. Beth Barts' resignation is effective November 2nd, 2021, the date of her upcoming recall election, a tremendous effort by Fight for Schools and other organizations. No Left Turn in Education demands that the entire Loudoun County school board and the Superintendent resign for failing to secure a safe learning environment for ALL students.

This resignation is proof that OUR tenacity leads to results. We must intensify our efforts not only in Loudoun County but across America until all K-12 schools are free from radical indoctrination and politicization. We urge everyone to join the premier national grassroots movement of commonsense people: Join your local chapter today!
